

Canadian Armed Forces — Role Requirements Overview

Planning guide for common roles in the CAF · Free reference sheet · join-ready.com

Planning reference only. This is an educational planning overview. Canadian Armed Forces entry requirements vary by occupation, component (Regular Force or Reserve), and current recruiting priorities. Requirements change over time. Verify all details with a Canadian Forces Recruiting Centre (CFRC) or the official CAF website.

ROLE	BRANCH	EDUCATION	APTITUDE	FITNESS	MEDICAL	NOTES
Infantry Soldier	Army (Regular / Reserve)	Secondary school completion (Grade 10 minimum; Grade 12 preferred)	CFAT (Canadian Forces Aptitude Test) — minimum score required	High — FORCE Evaluation standard	Medical suitability required	Core ground combat role; bilingual (French/English) an asset
Armoured Soldier	Army	Secondary school completion	CFAT score applies	High	Medical suitability required	Tank crew and reconnaissance vehicle operator; technical aptitude valued
Combat Engineer	Army	Secondary school completion; mathematics and science beneficial	CFAT — moderate to high score	High	Medical suitability required	Demolitions, bridging, construction; trades background useful for advancement
Signal Operator	Army / Joint	Secondary school; mathematics helpful	CFAT — technical aptitude expected	Standard	Medical suitability required	Communications systems; security clearance required for some specialisations
Medical Technician	All branches	Secondary school with science courses; some roles require college diploma	CFAT — higher score expected	Standard–High	Medical suitability required	Provides medical care in garrison and operational settings; EMT-equivalent training provided
Logistics Officer / Supply Technician	All branches	Secondary school (technician); university degree (officer)	CFAT score required; officer track requires higher score	Standard	Medical suitability required	Supply chain and materiel management; officer route requires degree and leadership assessment
Military Police	All branches	Secondary school completion; some college preferred	CFAT — higher score; psychological assessment	Moderate–High	Medical suitability required	Law enforcement and security role; background investigation required
Naval Communicator	Royal Canadian Navy	Secondary school; mathematics and English important	CFAT — technical aptitude assessed	Standard	Enhanced medical screening for seagoing service	Communications aboard naval vessels; security clearance required

Based on publicly available Canadian Armed Forces recruiting information. Not an official DND or CAF document.

