

Armée Française — Role Requirements Overview

Planning guide for common roles in the French armed forces · Free reference sheet · join-ready.com

Planning reference only. This is an educational planning overview. French military entry requirements vary by branch (Armée de Terre, Marine Nationale, Armée de l’Air), role, and contract type. Requirements change with recruiting cycles. Verify all details with the Centre de Recrutement de l’Armée de Terre (CIRFA) or equivalent service recruiting centre.

ROLE	BRANCH	EDUCATION	APTITUDE	FITNESS	MEDICAL	NOTES
Infantry Soldier	Armée de Terre	No minimum diploma required for enlisted; CAP or BEP valued	SIGYCOP aptitude profile assessed	High — physical tests required	Medical suitability required	Core land combat role; French language proficiency required for most roles
Paratrooper	Armée de Terre (Troupes aéroportées)	No minimum diploma for enlisted entry	Aptitude profile assessed; higher standards apply	Very High — airborne selection standards	Enhanced medical screening	Légion étrangère (Foreign Legion) also has parachute regiment; demanding selection
Combat Engineer	Armée de Terre (Génie)	CAP/BEP or Baccalauréat for technical specialisations	Technical aptitude assessed	High	Medical suitability required	Demolitions, bridging, route clearance; technical qualifications beneficial for advancement
Logistics Specialist	Armée de Terre / Marine / Air	No minimum diploma for enlisted	Role-dependent aptitude testing	Standard	Medical suitability required	Supply chain, transport, and distribution support across all service branches
Signals / Communications	Armée de Terre / Marine / Air	Baccalauréat or technical qualification preferred	Technical and analytical aptitude assessed	Standard	Medical suitability required	Communications infrastructure and electronic systems; IT skills valued
Medic / Medical Support	Service de Santé des Armées	Role-dependent: from BEP to medical degree	Academic aptitude for clinical roles	Standard–High	Medical suitability required	Ranges from nursing assistant to qualified doctor; qualifications determine entry level
Gendarmerie	Gendarmerie Nationale	Baccalauréat typically required for officer track	Written and psychological testing	High	Medical suitability required	Paramilitary police force; separate from Army; competitive entry process
Navy Sailor	Marine Nationale	BEP or Baccalauréat depending on role	SIGYCOP profile and role-specific tests	Standard–High	Enhanced medical screening for seagoing roles	Wide range of roles from deck ratings to technical specialists; sea deployment expected

Based on publicly available French military recruiting information. Not an official French Ministry of Defence document.

