

Bundeswehr — Role Requirements Overview

Planning guide for common roles in the German armed forces · Free reference sheet · join-ready.com

Planning reference only. This is an educational planning overview. Bundeswehr entry requirements vary by role, service branch (Teilstreitkraft), and contract type. Requirements change with recruiting cycles. Verify all details with the official Bundeswehr recruiting centre (Karrierecenter der Bundeswehr).

| ROLE             | BRANCH                             | EDUCATION                                                                             | APTITUDE                              | FITNESS                                                | MEDICAL                      | NOTES                                                                                    |
|------------------|------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Jäger / Infantry | Heer (Army)                        | Hauptschulabschluss or equivalent                                                     | Eignungstest (aptitude test) required | High — Sporttest required                              | Medical suitability required | Core ground combat; Hauptschulabschluss is the minimum for enlisted roles                |
| Fallschirmjäger  | Heer (Army)                        | Hauptschulabschluss minimum                                                           | Higher aptitude score expected        | Very High — selection demands exceed standard infantry | Enhanced medical screening   | Airborne infantry; physically and mentally demanding selection process                   |
| Panzergrenadier  | Heer (Army)                        | Hauptschulabschluss or equivalent                                                     | Aptitude test applies                 | High                                                   | Medical suitability required | Mechanised infantry on armoured vehicles; teamwork-focused role                          |
| Pionier          | Heer (Army)                        | Hauptschulabschluss; technical background valued                                      | Technical aptitude assessed           | High                                                   | Medical suitability required | Combat engineering, demolitions, bridging; technical qualifications beneficial           |
| IT / Cyber       | CIR (Cyber and Information Domain) | Mittlere Reife or Abitur preferred; IT qualifications valued                          | Strong analytical aptitude expected   | Standard                                               | Medical suitability required | Growing branch; security clearance required; IT degree or vocational training valued     |
| Sanitätsdienst   | Joint Medical Service              | Role-dependent: ranges from Hauptschulabschluss to university degree (Medizinstudium) | Academic aptitude for clinical roles  | Standard–High                                          | Medical suitability required | From support roles to qualified doctors and nurses; qualifications determine entry route |
| Feldjäger        | Heer (Army)                        | Hauptschulabschluss minimum; Realschulabschluss often preferred                       | Psychological and aptitude assessment | Moderate–High                                          | Medical suitability required | Military police; law enforcement background not required but beneficial                  |
| Logistik         | All branches                       | Hauptschulabschluss                                                                   | Role-dependent aptitude testing       | Standard                                               | Medical suitability required | Supply, transport, and materiel management; wide range of sub-roles available            |

Based on publicly available Bundeswehr recruiting information. Not an official Bundeswehr document.

